Numb. 9614. 149

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday Auguſt 31, to Saturday September 4, 1756.

Rome, Auguſt 14.

ON the 5th Inſtant the Pope's Gallies returned to Civita Vecchia to refit, in order to put to Sea again to cruize againſt the Barbary Corſairs. On the 6th Inſtant Cardinal Ferroni ſat out for Florence, to paſs ſome Weeks in his native Country.

Florence, Aug. 21. Laſt Week the Regency met to conſider of the Requeſt of the Governor of Leghorn for a Reinforcement of Troops from hence, in the preſent critical Conjuncture of Affairs; but no Determination as yet has been taken. On the 11th Inſtant Count Richecourt ſat out for the Piſa Baths, and, on his Return from thence, propoſes to take a Journey to Vienna.

Turin, Aug. 18. A ſecond Earthquake was felt here the 13th in the Morning, about twenty Minutes after nine; it was ſtronger than the firſt. At Suza the Shock was ſo great, that the Inhabitants went out of their Houſes, and even during Maſs, the People deſerted the Churches.

Vienna, Aug. 18. Regiments are paſſing daily by this City, in their Way to the Camps in Bohemia and Moravia; and a Body of 4 or 5000 Croatians are in full March, and will paſs by here ſome Day next Week. To-morrow three Battalions, and two Companies of Grenadiers of Marſhal Leopold Daun's Regiment, are to leave this City; and, in their Abſence, the Garriſon of this Place is to conſiſt of a Battalion of that Regiment, one of Waldeck, one of Botta, one of Piccolomini, and one of Sincere, with the Grenadiers of Baaden-Baaden, and of Teutſch Meiſter. The Regiments of Foot that are to be encamped, have only three of their Battalions and their Companies of Grenadiers in the Field, the reſt being left in order to recruit. Three Regiments are ordered from Italy, to ſupply the Place of thoſe now called from the Provinces of Stiria, Carinthia, &c. And the Regiments of Horſe and Foot in Italy, are to be immediately made up to their full Complement. General Stambach died a few Days ago, which makes a Regiment of Cavalry vacant. The Emperor ſets out To-morrow or next Day for Hollitſch, and the Empreſs will follow on Saturday next.

Venice, Aug. 20. On Tueſday laſt a violent Storm of Wind tore off the Roof of the Town Hall, and did much Damage to a great Number of Houſes in Padua, and in the Country round about, and tore up many Trees by the Roots. Likewiſe at Maſtri, within five Miles of this City, and in that Neighbourhood, great Numbers of Boats were overſet, in one of which were 21 Perſons, 17 or 18 of whom were drowned.

Bruſſels, Aug. 31. Our laſt Advices from Paris confirm the Intention of the French Court to ſend a Body of Troops into the Iſland of Corſica. The Embarkation was to be made (as they give out) at Antibes, on the 20th Inſtant, and was to conſiſt of eight Battalions, under the Command of the Marquis de Caſtries. The Regiments named for this Expedition are thoſe of Flandres, Montmorin, Dieſbach, and Hockart.

Kenſington, September 1.

This Day an humble Addreſs from the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Norfolk, was preſented to His Majeſty by George Townſhend, Eſq; and Sir Armine Woodhouſe.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Somerſet, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl Powlet, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, the ſame was this Day preſented to His Majeſty.

Kenſington, September 2.

This Day an humble Addreſs from the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other principal Inhabitants of the City of Briſtol, was preſented to His Majeſty by Mr. Smith.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Aug. 31.

To give Notice to all Peers, Peereſſes and Privy Counſellors, that the Court goes out of Mourning on Sunday next, the 5th of September, for the late Dutcheſs of Saxe Hildbourghauſen.

Whitehall, August 28, 1756.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Paper, directed, "For John Townsend, Mealman, Newbury," and on which the following Words "were written, viz. "John Townsend, and Millett, "If you dont stop carrin the Flower to Bristoll we "will knock you both in the Head and you shant "have one Horse left, nor you shant have a Mill to "stand so war Heads.—August the 7th, 1756" was, in the Night, between the 8th and 9th Instant, put under the Door of the Dwelling House of John Kember, Mealman, in Newbury aforesaid, in the County of Berks, who is a near Neighbour of the said John Townsend; His Majesty, for the better Discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in Writing the said Paper, and putting the same under the Door of the said John Kember's House, as abovementioned, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one (except the Person who actually wrote the said Paper) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I John Townsend, Mealman, in Newbury, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid, upon the Conviction of one, or more of the Offenders, by me

John Townsend.

Admiralty-Office, August 31, 1756.

Whereas it has been represented, that several Private Men belonging to His Majesty's Marine Forces have deserted, or absented themselves without Leave, from their respective Companies; This is, by Order of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to give Notice to such Men, that if they return to their Duty, at either of the Marine Head Quarters, of Chatham, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, by the last Day of next Month, they will not be punished for their abovesaid Desertion, or Absence.

Custom-House, London, August 30, 1756.

Whereas an anonymous Letter, dated the 24th instant, was sent by the Penny Post, from the House of one Mills, in Cock Lane, Spittal Fields, where Penny Post Letters are taken in, to one of the Land Surveyors of the Port of London, containing several false and scandalous Reflections on the said Land Surveyor and others of that Office, and threatning, that if he did not endeavour to
